Dear Sir:-

On July 8th, 1902, I sent you a letter requesting a Passport for William ^{Henry} Singstacken, a citizen of the United States, who leaves Tuesday morning, July 15th, for Germany. On the 10th day of July I received "Form For Naturalized Citizen" for said William Henry Singstacken, to sign and make oath to. On the 10th day of July I forwarded to you the enclosed certificate duly filled out, also with certificate of naturalization which you undoubtedly read and found to be correct, but you returned the affidavit of said William Henry Singstacken, together with his certificate of naturalization to me in Naugatuck, Connecticut, and I received the same this morning at eight o'clock ^{without the passport.} The reason you returned the certificate of naturalization and affidavit of William Henry Singstacken without, the Passport, was I omitted to conform to rule 12, namely; neglected to send the fee of one dollar to pay for said passport. Mr. Singstacken leaves for Germany Tuesday morning, July 15th, and he wanted his certificate of naturalization and of course I gave him the same this morning thinking that as you have already seen the certificate of naturalization that is all you required at your office, and as he would be on the Ocean, for Germany, before a passport would reach me thought it better for him to take his naturalization certificate. Enclosed you will find the affidavit, also one dollar to comply with rule 12. Kindly forward said passport to me at once and I will send the same to William Henry Singstacken in Germany.

Very truly
Wm Kennedy

Dear Sir:

Referring to the enclosed communication from yourself and the accompanying papers, I would say that I have personally known Mr. Donovan for nearly twenty years and known him to be a voter for at least that length of time. He encloses herewith his father's naturalization papers. He himself never was naturalized because he was a boy of only twelve years of age when he came to America and his father was naturalized, making it unnecessary for him to go through that formality. I know Mr. Donovan very well indeed and know him to be a gentleman of the strictest truth and honor, and you can safely depend upon anything he tells of himself.

Please send his passports to him at New York City at the earliest possible moment, as he sails on the coming Saturday. Address him Care The Railway Steel Spring Co., 71 Broadway, New York, N. Y., and be sure to return to him, with his passports, his father's naturalization papers, and greatly oblige

Yours respectfully,

Dear Sir:

I observe that the enclosed passport states that I am to be accompanied upon my European trip by my "minor" son. This is an error and I infer that my application must in some way have misled you. The son who is to accompany me is thirty-six years of age and has applied, or will apply, for separate passport for himself. I return the one you sent me, thinking it ought to be corrected, and if such is the case please make proper correction and return to me.

Yours very respectfully,

Dictated.
